

PRIMROSE HEXAGON

“The inspiration for this design came from seeing a bank of Primroses at the side of a country lane while out for a Sunday afternoon drive. My husband had remembered seeing them on his weekend bike ride and thought i’d enjoy them. There were so many in a whole range of colours.”

Saffron - centres,

Pistachio - leaves and stems,

Project ideas:

Make a collection of hexagons with the flowers in as many colours as you like and join them together to make blankets, throws, table runners, cushion covers and more.

To obtain a lighter, more lacy effect if you would like to make a shawl, omit the final round of the pattern.

Whatever you make I wish you lots of creative magic and enjoyment.

Love,
Karen x
